

You may have to complete the Argument section before completing the Points and Authorities section.

If the appellant makes a 5th argument, state the title of your 5th argument here and list the page where the argument starts later in the brief. Make the title responsive to the title of the appellant's 5th argument. If the appellant doesn't make a 5th argument, remove this page.

5. The trial court or jury (check one) was right to _____

Authorities:

In the formats provided by Illinois Supreme Court Rule 6, list the authorities (cases, statutes (laws), etc.) that you refer to in your 5th argument, in order of their importance, and the pages on which they will appear.

Add pages as necessary to list your authorities.

