HOW TO PREPARE AND FILE A PROOF OF SERVICE & AFFIDAVIT OF MAILING (APPEAL)

What is a Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing?

- Before you file a document with the court, you must send a copy to each of the other parties, and you must send it in one of several particular ways. A Proof of Service shows the court how you sent a copy of a document to each of the other parties in the case.
- An Affidavit of Mailing shows that you are filing an original document with the court by U.S. Mail or by third-party commercial carrier (e.g., FedEx or UPS). When using a third-party commercial carrier, you must request delivery within 3 business days.
 - So long as you send the document to the court on or before the due date, the Affidavit of Mailing will show that you filed the document on time, even if it arrives at the court after the due date.
 - NOTE: If you file the document by going to the clerk's office, you do not need to fill out the Affidavit of Mailing section.
- By signing the Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing, you are making a sworn statement under penalty of perjury that you have told the truth.

When do I use the Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing form?

- A Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing must be used whenever a document is filed in the appellate court.

What forms do I need to fill out to file the Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing?

- The Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing form.

What costs will I need to pay to file my Proof of Service & Affidavit of Mailing?
