QUALIFIED MEDICAL CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

This cause is before the Court pursuant to Section 505 of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act (750 ILCS 5/505) and 29 USC 1169. The Court finds that the children of the parties are eligible under a group health plan:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

A. Each of the following children of the parties, referred to as "alternate recipient," has a right to receive benefits as a beneficiary under a group health plan in which one of the parties, referred to as "participant," has a right to participate:

- (1) The name, address and last four numbers of the social security number of the participant is: _____
- (2) The name and address of each alternate recipient (children) covered by this Order is (insert the full name and birthdates of each child covered):
_____
_____

(3) The name and address of the designated representative for receipt of copies of notices with respect to this Order, is:

_____

B. The coverage to be provided by the plan to each alternate recipient is: that coverage currently available to the participant or that which may subsequently become available to the participant.

C. The alternate recipients shall be covered by that coverage to which the participant is now eligible or for which the participant may in the future become eligible.

D. The order applies to each alternate recipient until the marriage of the alternate recipient or the latest of the following dates: (1) Age 18 or earlier emancipation by a Judgement entered pursuant to The Emancipation of Mature Minors Act; (2) Completion of Secondary Schooling (high school graduation); (3) The alternate recipient reaches the age of 26.

E. This Order applies to each of the following plans, if available: Medical (Primary and Major Medical), Dental, Vision, and Pharmaceutical.

F. Any benefit payments by a plan in reimbursement for expenses paid by an alternate recipient, or by the custodial parent or legal guardian of the alternate recipient, shall be paid to the alternate recipient or the custodial parent or legal guardian of the alternate recipient.

G. The Participant shall pay any premium cost of the plan for each alternate recipient and the cost shall be deductible from Participant's gross income by wage withholding.
